Announcing 2018 WCFA Artist Member Show “By the Sea”

WCFA is seeking nautical themed artwork for our upcoming “By the Sea” Members Show! Artwork can be nautical in subject matter or more abstractly in color palette. The show will also highlight the beauty and history of our “Ocean State” with additional art and artifacts from the local Steamship Historical Society. In addition we will have a variety of community events including sea glass workshops, Sea Shell Drawing and more! Exhibit Run: Wednesday, August 22 – Thursday, September 27, 2018

Curator: Taylor Terreri, Director, Warwick Center for the Arts

Eligibility: This show is open to WCFA artists working in all mediums including but not limited to Drawing, Digital Art, Jewelry Making, Painting, Photography, Sculpture, Textiles, and Traditional Cultural Arts. Works must be original and previously submitted artworks will not be accepted.

Fees: $15 Hanging Fee per exhibiting Artist

Hanging Requirements: All artworks must be wired and ready to hang; our hanging system does not allow for hanging with clips, saw tooth hangers, or loops – please wire prior to drop off.

How to Submit:

- Complete and email required “Artist Agreement” & “Artwork Submission Form” with JPEG images of artworks to exhibits@warwickcfa.org with “BY THE SEA” in the subject line.
- JPEGs should be labeled with the title of artwork only.
- An artist statement on the required “Artwork Submission Form” for the gallery book (200 words maximum)
